The Long Ledger · Chapter 3: The Map (1930s–1960s)

The federal maps shade the West Side red. The banks won't lend here, the insurers won't write here, and the only way to buy a house is on contract. Families start reading their contracts together.

Setup

Set up the Full Block (Co-op). Swap the Housing and Lending deal decks for this envelope's era decks (the cards with “The Map” backs; print the backs on the reverse so era deals never mix into the base deck). Start Housing at Squeeze 2, Lending at Squeeze 2. The Owner is The Appraiser (it plays as The Lobbyist): slide its card face-down under the board instead of shuffling the Owners. Ignore the scenario deck. If the family played the last chapter: put on the district stickers (each Rebuilt takes 1 Squeeze off a district this chapter starts squeezed, or else adds Clarity 1; each Scarred adds Squeeze 1), and if that chapter was lost the community rallies: everyone +1 Trust. Then apply last chapter's Family Decision (Up North): The church: In Chapter 3, gathering at the church takes off 3 Shady instead of 2. The house: In Chapter 3, Housing starts with 1 less Squeeze: a house the family owns outright. A child's schooling: In Chapter 3, the Student starts with Read 1 everywhere.

The twist

REDLINING is active from round 1, and from round 2, while it stays active, the map compounds: it tightens a second time every round (+1 Squeeze on the weaker of Housing and Lending). Break it, or it breaks you.

The League

Like the Contract Buyers League (Chicago, 1968): sign the pledge to withhold together (an action). Every family must sign in the same round, or the sellers scare them off and the pledges fall apart. Once it forms: Housing Squeeze −2 at once, Housing −1 every second round after, and every Housing and Lending trap can be negotiated with Read 1. The League card goes on the board when it forms.

The Owner's face

The Appraiser: leans on your strongest unfinished district every round (+1 Squeeze); on reveal, knocks one woken district back to Clarity 1.

Ending the chapter

Win or lose, fill in the Family Ledger on the lineage sheet: win +2 and +1 per awake district; lose −2 and −1 per captured district; each Fall −1 and each Reach +1. Awake districts heal a Scar or take a Rebuilt sticker; captured districts take a Scarred sticker (at most 2 per district). A chapter won with no Falls redeems one Fall from an earlier chapter (+2). History unlocked: “The Redlining Maps”. With a win, also “The Contract Buyers League”.

Family Decision

Stay and fight for the house, or move to where the map says you can? Stay and fight: Housing keeps its stickers, and the family's Ledger +1: they held the line. Move: Remove one Scar from Housing, but the Elder stays behind: in Chapter 4 the Elder starts with no Read and no History.

Balance-tested with computer players at 1–5 players (python3 balance_test.py, CAMPAIGNS and SOLO). Solo: 5 actions, Teach a neighbor, trace 2 threads (RULES.md, Solo).
