Book One · Chapter 2: The Net (A county job)

A county job, a desk, a program that sounds like help. The terms keep changing on you.

Setup

Set up the Full Block (Co-op), with the Terrell rule and fine-print dice. The Owner is The Net (it plays as The Algorithm): slide its card face-down under the board instead of shuffling the Owners. Ignore the scenario deck.

The twist

Full Block with fine-print dice. The Desk: at the start of round 2 one player may take the Desk. At the Desk they gain +1 Trust every round but can't face deals or teach, and every second round its paperwork feeds the Machine an extra strike. Leaving it, for good, takes an action.

The Owner's face

The Net: the program that sounds like help. Relentless: the Machine strikes one extra time every round.

Ending the chapter

If the player at the Desk left it, the ledger reads Quit the desk: in Chapter 3 that player starts with Read 1 everywhere.

Balance-tested with computer players at 1–5 players (python3 balance_test.py, CAMPAIGNS and SOLO). Solo: 5 actions, Teach a neighbor, trace 2 threads (RULES.md, Solo).

THE OWNER hidden

The Net

The Net: the program that sounds like help. Relentless: the Machine strikes one extra time every round.

This chapter's Owner. Slide it face-down under the board instead of shuffling the Owners.

THE TWIST Chapter 2

The Net

Full Block with fine-print dice. The Desk: at the start of round 2 one player may take the Desk. At the Desk they gain +1 Trust every round but can't face deals or teach, and every second round its paperwork feeds the Machine an extra strike. Leaving it, for good, takes an action.

THE DESK round 2

A County Job

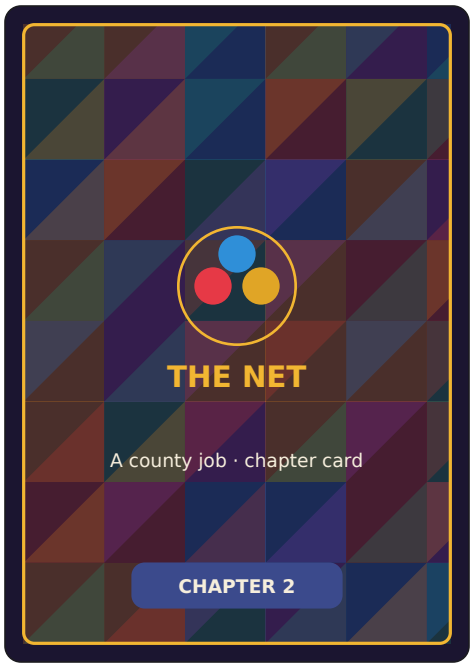

At the start of round 2, one player may take this card. At the Desk: +1 Trust every round; no facing deals and no teaching; every second round the Machine strikes once more. Quitting it, for good, takes an action.
