The Long Ledger · Chapter 4: Voice (1955–1970)

Boycotts in Montgomery, a strike in Memphis, and on the West Side the family is registering voters. In 1970 Dayton elects James H. McGee mayor. Somebody keeps offering the organizers a quieter way.

Setup

Set up the Full Block (Co-op). Swap the Labor and Education deal decks for this envelope's era decks (the cards with “Voice” backs; print the backs on the reverse so era deals never mix into the base deck). The Owner is The Council (it plays as The Lobbyist): slide its card face-down under the board instead of shuffling the Owners. Ignore the scenario deck. If the family played the last chapter: put on the district stickers (each Rebuilt takes 1 Squeeze off a district this chapter starts squeezed, or else adds Clarity 1; each Scarred adds Squeeze 1), and if that chapter was lost the community rallies: everyone +1 Trust. Then apply last chapter's Family Decision (The Map): Stay and fight: Housing keeps its stickers, and the family's Ledger +1: they held the line. Move: Remove one Scar from Housing, but the Elder stays behind: in Chapter 4 the Elder starts with no Read and no History.

The twist

The Organizer's NEGOTIATE clears 3 Squeeze. Once per game, any player can call the March (an action): every player gathers at once (Trust +2, Shady −1, covered).

The Owner's face

The Council: leans on your strongest unfinished district every round (+1 Squeeze); on reveal, it redraws the lines: every woken district loses 1 Clarity.

Ending the chapter

Win or lose, fill in the Family Ledger on the lineage sheet: win +2 and +1 per awake district; lose −2 and −1 per captured district; each Fall −1 and each Reach +1. Awake districts heal a Scar or take a Rebuilt sticker; captured districts take a Scarred sticker (at most 2 per district). A chapter won with no Falls redeems one Fall from an earlier chapter (+2). History unlocked: “The Montgomery Bus Boycott”, “I AM A MAN”. With a win, also “Mayor James H. McGee”.

Family Decision

Run for office, or keep organizing? Run for office: In Chapter 5, the Owner's hidden hand rests for the first 3 rounds. Keep organizing: In Chapter 5, the Organizer starts with 5 Trust.

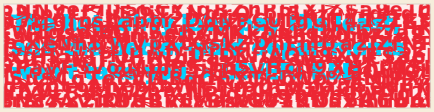

Balance-tested with computer players at 1–5 players (python3 balance_test.py, CAMPAIGNS and SOLO). Solo: 5 actions, Teach a neighbor, trace 2 threads (RULES.md, Solo).
